

Prompts For Writers App

Writing prompts for everyone

Prompts For Writers is a great app to encourage students to write. It includes more than 1,000 writing prompts that can be accessed at the touch of a button. Write full screen and swipe down to pull up the menu. Set daily reminders to keep your writing habits healthy, bookmark the projects you're working on, and even monitor your writing stats to see which days and times you're at your best. Adjust font style and size to match your writing style, whatever style that is for you. The app syncs with Dropbox, and also includes export capabilities for Evernote, email, and more.

Classroom Connection

Students struggling with writer's block? This app will help them get past it with the tons of prompts built in. Use it as a daily writing warm-up or journal. Display a prompt on your whiteboard for all students to write from. Students can easily create a writing portfolio in Evernote or other apps.
